Simon Humphreys Inclusion Coordinator

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are writing to inform you of a small change in the terminology we use when referring to the role that supports children with additional needs in our school.

You may previously have been familiar with the title SEND Coordinator (SENDCo). Going forward, we will be using the term Inclusion Coordinator (INCco) to describe this role.

This change in title reflects our whole-school commitment to inclusion and to supporting the needs of all pupils. The Inclusion Coordinator continues to carry out the same responsibilities as before, including coordinating support for children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND), working closely with teachers and external professionals, and communicating with families to ensure the best possible outcomes for each child.

Please be assured that this is a change in name only. The level of support, statutory responsibilities, and our commitment to meeting each child's needs remain exactly the same.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss your child's support in more detail, please do not hesitate to contact the Simon Humphreys, our Inclusion Coordinator via the school office.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Angela Hughes

Headteacher
